The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Partly cloudy
Saturday.

Registration Day Tuesday, Oct. 6, from 6 a. m., to 9 p. m.

The "pay-as-you-enter" street car system is being tried with one car in Louisville as an experiment. It is being worked with success in Chicago, New York and other large cities.

The Republican feud in West Virginia has been settled by the withdrawal of both rival candidates for Governor and the nomination of W.
E. Glasscock.

The Hearst party is expected to make a nomination for Governor in New York today and Hearst will then concentrate his efforts in New York State, where his party last year polled 120,000 votes.

The Times says fifty debutantes will be promoted from Louisville's younger set into the society of the Smart Set this winter. A busy season is at hand before they are picked over.

Commonwealth's Attorney R. Y.
Thomas, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Third district, will speak at Bowling Green Monday in reply to Secretary of State Ben Bruner, who in a recent speech charged him with being in sympathy with night riders.

John C. Worsham, Republican nominee for Congress in the Second district, this morning accepted the formal challenge of Congressman A.
O. Stanley for a joint debate, and offered a division of time at all appointments. They will meet here Monday at 1 p. m.

Mr. Bryant jumps from state to state with startling rapidity, making it difficult for a paper published every other day to keep up with him. Everywhere he leaves behind a trail of enthusiasm. Thursday he swept through Ohio making twelve speeches to crowds of from 2,000 to 5,000.

No pardon will be granted by Gov.
Willson in the future without giving due notice to all persons interested and a chance to protest, should anyone desire to protest. Notice must be given in the county where the crime was committed that the Governor will be applied to for a pardon. This notice must be posted at the courthouse door or printed in a paper having general circulation.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous services. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O. by F. J.
Cheney and Co. Testimonials free.

of contributions to the National Democratic Campaign Fund and

TOTAL PARALYSIS

Prostrates the Giant Frame of W. B. Brewer.

Mr. Wm. B. Brewer, the prominent merchant and newspaper man of Fairview, suffered a stroke of paralysis this week and is in a critical condition. The paralysis affects the lower parts of his body, from the navel down, and includes his bowels.
He is entirely helpless and his condition is causing great sorrow to his friends, of whom there are many in this city. Esq. Brewer is one of the prominent men of Todd county and is widely known as the editor of the Fairview Review. He made the race for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket last year but was defeated in the Republican landslide.
Esq. Brewer is about 60 years of age. He is a man of unusual size, weighing more than 200 pounds.

broke out in the saloon of Bryant Wilcox & Co., on Locust street, and burned it and two other buildings, one a saloon owned by Menser & Woodruff, and the other a house just completed and unoccupied. The loss on stock and fixtures of both saloons was complete, amounting to near $5,000 for Wilcox and about the same for Menser & Woodruff, partly

HOT NUMBER.

Nashville American Calls On Gov. Patterson For In- stant Action.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 24.—The following editorial in today's American is the severest arraignment yet made by any paper against the night riders:

GUILTY BEFORE ALL THE WORLD.

Several witnesses have been introduced in the trial of Gardner and Hunt, at Clarksville, for the killing of a night rider who, in company with a number of his band, was riding the county armed cap-a-pie at 2 o'clock in the morning of March 10, 1908. These witnesses testify that they are members of the Tobacco Association, and, incidentally, being young men, belong to the night riders. The old men are reserved to serve on the juries.

While this is the first time any court has had this proof so pointedly put before it, every sane man, including Judge Tyler and all his jury, and Judge Savage particularly, knew all the time that such a conspiracy did exist; that the Tobacco Association countenanced the conspiracy if they did not aid it; that not one hand within the association has been really raised to stop the Ku-Klux character of their demonstrations, and the association was glad to profit by the outrages of the night riders. There can be no sort of doubt about that.

The prominent members of the Tobacco Association are accustomed to condemn the murders and other illegal acts of the night riders when talking to law-abiding citizens who care nothing for tobacco, nor those who raise it, but will invariably drop some such remark as "But I confess it riles me when I hear men talk about arresting the night riders and punishing them, and especially the Governor offering rewards for their detection."

One of the most prominent members of the association, in a long tirade against the unpardonable acts of cruelty of night riders practiced upon their own neighbors and kin, closed his condemnation of these outrages by saying: "However, it must be confessed the night riders have done a great deal of good." And when asked what good, he replied:
"They have forced a number of tobacco raisers into the association who would not have joined otherwise."

That is the whole confession in one sentence. The object of the night riders' raids, destruction of property, punishment of defenseless men and women, even children, and the murder of men, has been to force everybody to join the Tobacco Association, not join the night riders; that was attended to afterwards.
Two thousand men were to attack Clarksville. The order has been given twice by the proof, likely oftener.
Two thousand men! More than ever attacked Clarksville during the war.
The Cumberland river on the south and west, Red river on the north and east, with a loyal and alert volunteer guard under the chief of police, an old First Tennessee volunteer, made Clarksville so invulnerable that these miserable, cowardly riders by night and skulkers by day were afraid to attack though ordered twice, so the proof shows, to do so.

What is Tennessee going to do about it? If there is no law to defend the citizens of Tennessee, then let's abandon Tennessee and go back to a territory under the protection of the government. After our 112 years of statehood we prove our incompetency to take care of ourselves.
We are wont to boast of much. We dash it all in the dust dallying like a lot of dastards, permitting murder,

MANY ABLE ADDRESSES MARKED CLOSING DAY

Christian Church Convention Closed Pleasant And Profitable Session Thursday Night.

The address of President Carey E.
Morgan of the Christian Missionary convention, delivered Wednesday, was ordered printed in full in the minutes.

Rev. H. W. Elliott's annual report of the work done contained some interesting statistics: There is now a total membership in Kentucky of 129,905, the increase during the past twelve months being 15,625. The Sunday school enrollment is 66,660, there are 1,004 congregations and church property to the amount of $4,187, 250 is owned by this denomination.
During the year a total of $91,734.52 was raised for missionary purposes.

This was apportioned out as follows:
For state missionary work $42,430.90; for foreign missions, $18,952.85; for American missions outside of Kentucky, $10,588.43, and for woman's work, $16,407.02. Acting under the control of the state board, 42 workers have been in the field and as a result of their work of 5,280 days and preaching of 3,487 sermons, 1,916 persons joined the church and 47 new Sunday schools were established.

Rev. H. C. Kendrick, of Georgetown, delivered a fine address on "The New Kentucky Home." Two female missionaries from India were given a warm welcome, Doctors Nina Stevens and Anna Gordon. The latter is the widow of the minister who died here last winter.
The next meeting will be held in Lexington Sept. 20 to 24, 1909.

Officers were elected as follows:
Rev. H. D. Smith, of Hopkinsville, president.

Rev. Sherman B. Moore, of Mayfield, first vice-president.
Rev. W. E. Ellis, of Cynthiana, second vice-president.

Rev. H. W. Elliott, of Sulphur, corresponding secretary and treasurer.

Rev. W. B. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, recording secretary.
Rev. W. J. Hudspeth, of Hopkinsville, was elected as evangelist for western Kentucky.

The report of the anti-saloon league committee called forth some enthusiastic speeches.
Rev. Wm. Sweeney, of Evansville, conducted the evening services. The convention voted to send greetings to his aged father, Rev. John Sweeney.

Five little girls from the Children's Orphans Home were introduced by Miss Chambers, the superintendent. A voluntary offering of $71.70 was raised for them.

EDUCATIONAL SESSION.

The educational session was presided over by Rev. J. B. Briney, of Louisville.

The Kentucky Educational Association of the Christian church was organized, the aim of which is to bring all the schools and colleges into more prominence, increase enrollment and their general welfare. The officers elected were as follows:

President, Rev. J. H. McNeil, Covington; vice-president, Rev. E. S.
Fenstermacher, Bowling Green; secretary, Rev. W. T. Donaldson, Eminence; executive committee, Messrs. G. C. Long, Hopkinsville;
H. F. Hale, Mayfield; W. J. Thomas Croppers; Rev. Carey E. Morgan, Paris; Prof. T. B. McCartney, Lexington.

A banquet was given at Hotel Latham Wednesday night by the Alumni of Transylvania University. About 75 covers were laid and the guests all greatly enjoyed the occasion.

Rev. W. E. Mobley, of Elkton, 85, was the oldest minister in attendance. He has been in charge of the Elkton church for 50 years.

DR. POWELL'S ADDRESS.

Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, was the leading speaker of the morning session Thursday on "Our Centennial Enterprise." His forceful, oratory and eloquence stirred the convention up and created much enthusiasm.

At the afternoon session, the devotional service was conducted by Rev. G. H. C. Stoney, of Murray, after which a business session was held, devoted to receiving and discussing reports.

Rev. C. R. Hudson, of Frankfort, delivered an address on "The Teacher Training Class," which brought out much that was entertaining and instructive.

President R. H. Crossfield followed with an address on "The Organized Adult Class," which was delivered in the usual interesting style of this distinguished educator.

Thursday night's session was the closing Sunday school rally and the crowd was very large.

The devotional service was conducted by Rev. Jos. D. Armistead, of Eminence, an old Hopkinsville boy, who is rising rapidly as a minister.

The principal address was by Prof.
H. M. Hamill, of Nashville, on "The Churches' Supreme Opportunity in the Bible School." Prof. Hamill is a most entertaining speaker and his address contained many anecdotes and good points. It was a thoroughly pleased audience that heard his closing address.

The committee on resolutions then submitted a report thanking the local church and other citizens of Hopkinsville, for their hospitality, the officials of the church for all of the excellent arrangements and the local press for the good reports of the meetings. These were adopted by a rising vote and the meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m.

A considerable number of the delegates left on a special train yesterday morning for a visit to Mammoth Cave and most of the others returned to their homes on the morning trains.

for lack of law.
Meanwhile, many a man forced against his will to join this lawless, night-riding band will come out under the protection of the state and give away the whole miserable conspiracy. It is time the state gave its protection to the law-abiding citizen, or else its sanction to the breaking of the law.

The situation is intolerable. The rest of the state is particeps criminis to permit these outrages to keep Clarksville and her community always in terror.

HARRY WHITEHEAD

Killed in Mysterious Manner at Memphis.

Harry Whitehead, brother of Ben Whitehead, formerly of this city, and a nephew of Wm. Richards, who resided here several years ago, was shot and killed at Memphis, Tenn. He was boarding with Mr.
Richards, and was enroute home at night when fired upon by an unknown party from an alley. The affair is shrouded in mystery. Whitehead was about 25 years old and was known here, where he had visited.

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help your case. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

to conquer all female diseases.
Mrs. Norman R. Barndt, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I had suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

MAY STEWART

In "As You Like It," at Holland's Opera House, Monday night, Sept.
23, will be an event that will undoubtedly attract a large and fashionable house. There is also sure to be a desire on the part of the fair sex to see the gowns worn by Miss Stewart and her company which are claimed to be the most magnificent worn by any legitimate company touring the country. In the first act of "As You Like It," Miss Stewart will wear a heavily jeweled brocade over a satin, hand embroidered and is valued at nearly one thousand dollars—the wedding gown worn in the last act is equally handsome and even more expensive—being of a silver gauze, hand woven and hand embroidered by the peasants in France. The threads are genuine silver.

FIRE NEAR PEMBROKE.

No expense has been spared in scenic equipment and costuming to make the production second to none of its kind.

Mr. Butler's Residence Burns at Early Hour.

The residence of Mr. R. L. Butler, near Pembroke, was consumed by flames at an early hour Tuesday morning. Most of the contents was saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from the kitchen flue.
Mr. Butler's loss is about $1,000, partly covered by insurance.

Value of Insurance.

Fires originate in unexpected places and from unknown causes.
Doubtless some one who reads this article will sustain the next loss.
